

Choreographer & Notator

Kirsten Isenberg

Kirsten was trained by Joanna Wright in the Eastern Cape. After school she attended the UCT School of Dance where she attained a Bachelor of Music in Dance majoring in Choreography. During her four years of study, Kirsten apprenticed with Cape Town City Ballet. After completing her studies in 2006, Kirsten joined the ballet company as a full time artist. During her time at the ballet company, Kirsten started choreographing for the Cape Junior Ballet Company and became a member of the faculty and one of their resident choreographers. In 2009, Kirsten joined Bovim Ballet as a soloist and rehearsal mistress. Kirsten has subsequently created various works for Cape Town City Ballet as well as many theatre productions, competitions and most recently the 2010 RAD Bursary Award.
