

Jacqueline Morland Awards 2023 – Terms and Conditions

- Entries are via Trybooking only and close on Monday 27 February 2023 at 8.00AM. Entry fee is non-refundable and late entries cannot be accepted.
- Participants must be studying the Royal Academy of Dance (RAD) Syllabus, be residing in the Queensland and Northern New South Wales areas north of and including Coffs Harbour, and be enrolled with RAD Registered teachers in these areas at time of entry and at time of event.
- Students must have sat and passed a Royal Academy of Dance examination in 2022 to be eligible to enter the awards. Students must enter the same level of the exam that they completed in 2022. If they completed more than one exam, they must enter the level of the most recent exam completed in 2022.
- It is the responsibility of the teacher/parent and student to enter the correct level. A breach in this regulation could result in disqualification.
- All students are required to wear classical examination attire and examination hair accessories only – see full details on brochure.
- Advanced 1 and Advanced 2 entrants must attend the Contemporary Solo session at Adrenaline Performing Arts: 27/1472 Boundary Road, Wacol, Qld 4076 from 10:30am to 2.15pm before attending the Preliminary class at St John's. Please arrive no later than 10.30am.
- RAD reserves the right to make alterations where necessary.
- The judge's decision is final.
- Past Winners of either Advanced 1 or Advanced 2 cannot compete again in the Jacqueline Morland Awards.
- Entrants agree that photographic images taken during the event may be used for promotional and/or reporting purposes, unless they inform RAD otherwise.
- RAD should be notified in writing of any medical conditions when enrolling for the Awards. Candidates participate at their own risk.
- The Code of Conduct for Teachers and Parents on the RAD website must be adhered to or a competitor will be disqualified from the Awards.
- RAD Australia follows all current government and public health COVID-19 requirements - please refer to QLD Government website for current requirements prior to registering or attending any part of this event.
