

Terms and Conditions

Prelude Masterclass, Sunday 26 February 2023

- Entries are via Trybooking only and close Monday 20 February 2023 at 8am or when classes have reached 25 students per class. The entry fee is non-refundable and late entries cannot be accepted.
- Students must enter the same level that they have entered for the Jacqueline Morland Awards 2023, being the level of the last exam they completed in 2022.
- Students must be fully clothed and wearing shoes before they leave the venue.
- Name tags are supplied to the students attending and should be worn at all times.
- RAD should be notified in writing of any medical conditions when enrolling students in the Masterclass. Students participate at their own risk.
- The information is correct at time of publication and RAD reserves the right to make any changes where necessary, without notice.
- A 50% refund is only available if a written request is made and accompanied by a medical certificate prior to closing date, Monday 20 February 2023 at 8am, outlining that the student can no longer attend. Entry fee is non-refundable after that date or in other instances including change of mind or clashes with other commitments.
- Unless otherwise directed by the parent/guardian it is accepted that photographic images taken during this class may be used for RAD promotional/reporting purposes.
- Some physical contact may be necessary by a member of the faculty to demonstrate exercises or if a member of staff needs to administer first aid. Students attending do so at their own risk.
- RAD Australia follows all current government and public health COVID-19 requirements - please refer to QLD Government website for current requirements prior to registering or attending any part of this event.
