Katherine Drewe-Fraser

RTS

Examiner of the Royal Academy of Dance

Katherine Drewe-Fraser has been fortunate to have studied with many of the country's finest teachers viz Joan and Monica Halliday, Tanya Pearson, John Byrne, Anne Woolliams, Elaine Rae, Brian Ashbridge, Maggie Lorraine, Laurel Martyn and Alida Segal.

As a teenager Katherine was a soloist with the youth company, Border Ballet and performed roles from both the traditional repertoire and specially commissioned pieces. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Dance from the University of Melbourne (VCA) and a Master of Teaching (Dance) from the University of Surrey (RAD). Katherine was admitted to the Panel of Examiners in 2018.

Susan Sargison

ARAD, RTS

Examiner of the Royal Academy of Dance

Susan commenced her performance career at an early age starring as Clara in the Tasmanian Ballet Company's production of the Nutcracker. In 1979, Susan moved to Melbourne to attend the Australian Ballet School performing with the Dancers Company and the Australian Ballet under the direction of Dame Peggy Van Praagh. Her professional stage appearances included productions of Coppelia, Carmen, Giselle, and The Three Musketeers. Susan was also fortunate to be the choreographic muse for Robert Ray's productions of Poems and City Dances. After graduation, Susan worked with the Heidelberg Ballet Ensemble, Rex Reid Ballet Company and The Victorian State Opera in their production of Aida. Moving into Musical Theatre, Susan undertook overseas contracts to dance in Singapore and Japan. Continuing her dance journey Susan proved herself a reliable Australian dancer and was engaged in regular work in the West End's Commercial and Musical Theatre industry. As one of Charles Augins' dancers at Pineapple Dance Centre she undertook contracts to dance in Portugal and Vienna. Returning to Australia in 1987, Susan performed as a member and Understudy to the lead in the original cast of 'Seven Little Australians'. Ms. Sargison operated her own dance school in metropolitan Melbourne in the capacity of Artistic Director for 25 years. During this time, she also taught at Tertiary Dance Institutes teaching Certificate IV and Diploma students in Classical Ballet, Pas De Deux and Contemporary. Since 1991 Susan has been an active Adjudicator at numerous Dance Competitions and Eisteddfods throughout Australia. In 2012 Susan was appointed to the board of Examiners for The Royal Academy of Dance. Ms. Sargison continues to be a passionate freelance teacher, teaching all age ranges and feels very fortunate to be working in a profession that she loves.

Why come to the Autumn Intensive?

Here's what one of our teachers has to say...

"Autumn School is a wonderful opportunity to gain some valuable coaching before the students' exams. A fresh voice and the wonderful studios enable the students to really focus on the work and gain greater understanding of how to execute their dancing better and how to space the exam work within different spaces."
