

Terms and Conditions

Prelude Masterclass, Sunday 25 February 2024

- Entries are via Trybooking only and close Monday 19 February 2024 at 8am or when classes have reached the maximum number of students per class.
- Entry fee is non-refundable including due to change of mind or clashes with other commitments, entries are not transferable, and late entries cannot be accepted.
- A 50% refund is only available if a written request is made and accompanied by a medical certificate prior to 5pm on Friday 23 February, outlining that the student can no longer attend.
- Students must enter the same level that they have entered for the Jacqueline Morland Awards 2024 – ie the level of the highest eligible exam they completed in 2023.
- Students must be in street attire and shoes before they leave the venue.
- RAD should be notified in writing of any medical conditions when registering students in the Masterclass. Students participate at their own risk.
- Details are subject to change and RAD reserves the right to make any changes where necessary, without notice.
- Unless otherwise directed by the parent/guardian it is accepted that photographic images taken during this class may be used for RAD promotional/reporting purposes.
- Some physical contact may be necessary by a member of the faculty to demonstrate exercises or if a member of staff needs to administer first aid. Students attending do so at their own risk.
- RAD Australia follows all current government, public health and COVID-19 requirements - please refer to the Government website in your state for current guidelines and advice.
