

A ballerina with long dark hair is captured in a dynamic pose, performing an arabesque. She is wearing a dark green, flowing, long-sleeved dress and light-colored ballet slippers. Her right leg is extended vertically, with the foot pointed. Her left leg is on the floor, supporting her weight. Her arms are crossed in front of her chest. The background is a plain, light-colored wall with a wooden ballet barre running horizontally across the middle. The floor is a light grey.

ROYAL ACADEMY OF DANCE

TAKE YOUR CAREER TO THE NEXT STAGE

Train to teach on the Professional Dancers'
Graduate Teaching Diploma.

Professional Dancers' Graduate Teaching Diploma

Our professional dancers' programme will allow you to prepare for a new career in teaching and gain an internationally renowned RAD teaching qualification. You can study part-time around your rehearsal, performance and other work commitments.

Key Facts

- Draw on your experience as a professional dancer.
- Study flexibly, part-time whilst you are still performing.
- Gain a teaching qualification in 10 months.
- Hybrid delivery with an online induction, onsite intensive study period (London or Sydney) and teaching placement.
- Work with expert tutors and dance teachers with personalised support.
- Establish an international network through the RAD community.
- On successful completion of the programme you will be eligible for RAD Registered Teacher Status.

Entry Requirements

We welcome applications from dancers with significant professional performance experience with an established dance company, theatre organisation or dance production.

Key Dates

- Apply by 1 November 2024
- Programme starts in February 2025

Find out more

au.royalacademyofdance.org
radprospectus.info

Email: info@rad.org.au

Tel: +61 (02) 9331 4111

LEARN / TEACH / DANCE

Royal Academy of Dance® is a charity registered in England and Wales No. 312826
Photo by Jimmy Parratt